

February 1, 2006

Hello! My name is Jessica Sample. I am a senior at Perry Meridian High School. As I finish my last and final semester of high school, two important events pop into my head. The first is graduation. It is going to be a bittersweet to end this adventurous chapter of my life.

The other event is my senior spring break. Most people dream of Florida's white sandy beaches with huge groups of friends. My spring break plans are different. God has given me an opportunity to go on a mission trip to Piedras Negras, Mexico with Crossroads Missions from March 31, 2006 to April 8, 2006.

During this week a group of students and leaders, including myself, will travel by charter bus to Mexico. Once there, our group along with members from the local church will help with construction of homes needed in the local area. While building, we will also be ministering to local people about God's love.

I need your help! We are going as a team, a group, but our team does not stop with those on the trip. YOU can be a part of THIS TEAM as well. First, we need your prayers for the spiritual battles that lay ahead. Second, your help is needed to help cover the cost of this trip. The total cost is $750. Please consider investing $35 to $50, or any amount, in me and this project. Your donation will be accepted anytime with the majority of this amount due by March 1, 2006.

If you are willing to help me make my senior spring break possible, please make your checks payable to I.C.C.C. (Indian Creek Christian Church) and return to me in the enclosed envelope.

When I return from Mexico, I will contact you in writing and debrief you on all my wonderful experiences from the week.

Thank you for taking the time to help support me.

God Bless,

Jessica Sample
