"The People Helping People Network", with Jeff Cardwell continues to grow. The show is broadcast LIVE every Saturday morning at 11 to Noon on 88.7 FM "The Diamond", WICR along with a pre-recorded version on our syndicated radio network at various times. This very unique Talk Show was created and is hosted by Jeff Cardwell. In a recent interview with Millard Fuller, the Founder of Habitat for Humanity International and the Fuller Center for Housing, Mr. Fuller stated, "Jeff...I commend you for all that you are doing to help others. You have a wonderful mission and passion for people in need with the People Helping People Network. I am grateful for our partnership in serving others. Keep up the good work."

The show is focused on bringing people together to meet the needs of others. Cardwell said, "We feel that especially in these times, there is a crying need for outreach among people in their day to day lives." He further stated, "People are seeking opportunities and organizations that provide avenues of HOPE. Our mission is simple: To Bridge the Gap, bringing these organizations and needs together, to build better homes and communities, in which we all live, work, and raise our families. Life is all about People Helping People."

The Show features interviews with special guests from all walks of life. Previous guests include Jim Morris, the former Executive Director of the World Food Program based in Rome - the world's largest humanitarian organization; Millard Fuller, the Founder of Habitat for Humanity International and the Fuller Center for Housing, U.S. Representative Mike Pence of Edinburg and Indiana's Second Congressional District, U.S. Air Force General Chuck Yeager (Retired), World War II Veteran and the first man to break the sound barrier in 1947, Maria Rivera, survivor of the devastating earthquake on January 13th, 2001 in El Salvador, Central America, and Agnes Verdier, a visitor from Paris, France, developing a counseling method to break the chain of addiction around the world.

Cardwell stated, "We are looking for people who are involved in meeting the needs of others. We want to hear their story on how they are providing HOPE and OPPORTUNITIES." The show is underwritten by Cardwell Do-it Best Home Center, located at 3205 Madison Avenue, Indianapolis, Indiana 46227-1127 or on the web at www.CardwellHomeCenter.com.
